2022 Council Elections: Get ready to cast your vote

Dispatch of ballot materials to electors for the 2022 Council Elections will take place between Friday, 14 October and Thursday, 20 October 2022.

All voting in Council Elections is conducted by post, which makes it easy and convenient for the community to cast their vote.

Enrolled voters will receive a voting package in the mail and can return their completed ballot paper in the reply-paid envelope provided. Alternatively, ballot papers can be returned to the City of Victor Harbor Civic Centre at 1 Bay Road, Victor Harbor.

On the ballot paper, voters must number at least as many boxes as there are vacancies in the election. Voters must number them in order of preference, starting from 1 for the candidate who is the first choice.

The ballot pack will explain how many spots are vacant and give directions on how to fill out the ballot to make the vote count.

City of Victor Harbor Acting Chief Executive Officer, Karen Rokicinski, said enrolled voters should keep an eye out in their letterbox over the next fortnight.

“Your vote in the 2022 Council Elections can make a huge difference to everyday life in your community,” said Ms Rokicinski.

“Councils are responsible for delivering a wide range of community services, and Councillors make important decisions relating to budgets, projects and local initiatives.”

“It’s important to learn about your candidates because, if they are successful, they will be representing your interests on Council and will have an impact on the future of your neighbourhood.”

“Your ballot pack will contain all the information you need to make an informed vote, so don’t forget to check your mailbox over the next fortnight!”

The City of Victor Harbor has three candidates standing for Mayor, and 19 candidates standing for nine Councillor positions. The candidates are listed on the following page in the order they will appear on the ballot paper.

More information about each candidate will be included in each voter’s ballot pack, or community members can visit www.victor.sa.gov.au/elections.

Ballot papers must be returned by 5pm on Thursday, 10 November 2022.
