

Nominations now open for the 2023 Citizen of the Year Awards

We all know a local legend who deserves recognition. It's time to acknowledge our community heroes for their remarkable contributions to Victor Harbor!

The Citizen of the Year Awards are an opportunity to recognise the extraordinary contributions of individuals and groups in our community.

City of Victor Harbor Acting Chief Executive Officer, Karen Rokicinski, said nominations are now open for four different categories.

“I encourage everyone to think about the unsung heroes in their life and neighbourhood, and consider nominating for these prestigious awards,” said Ms Rokicinski.

“You could nominate someone who has contributed to areas such as education, health, fundraising, volunteer services, business, sport, arts, the environment, or any other field that supports the wellbeing of our community.”

“Victor Harbor is a city full of spirit, but it wouldn't be as vibrant without the efforts of generous individuals and organisations. Let's recognise these people!”

The four categories for nominations are:

This is presented to someone making an extraordinary contribution to the community and may recognise outstanding service over a number of years. To be eligible, the person must be an Australian Citizen.
