2022 Council Elections: Who are your candidates?

The candidates for the 2022 Council Elections have been announced.

An official ballot draw took place at the City of Victor Harbor Civic Centre at 4pm on Tuesday, 6 September 2022 to determine the order in which candidate names will be listed on ballot papers.

The City of Victor Harbor has three candidates standing for Mayor, and 19 candidates standing for nine Councillor positions. The candidates are listed on the following page in the order they will appear on the ballot paper.

All voting in the Council Elections will be done by post.

Enrolled voters will receive a voting package in the mail and return their completed ballot paper in the reply-paid envelope provided. Ballot papers will be dispatched between Friday, 14 October and Thursday, 20 October 2022.

The City of Victor Harbor will be hosting a Meet the Candidates Forum at 7pm on Wednesday, 5 October 2022 at the Victor Harbor Convention Centre (McCracken Drive). All community members are invited to attend.

This forum is a chance for residents, ratepayers and businesses to hear from the candidates who have put their hand up to represent the local community on Council.

City of Victor Harbor Acting Chief Executive Officer, Karen Rokicinski, said it's extremely important that community members research their candidates.

"Your vote in the 2022 Council Elections can make a huge difference to everyday life in your community," said Ms Rokicinski.

"Dispatch of ballot materials to electors for the 2022 Council Elections will take place in mid-October, so now is the time to start getting to know your candidates and thinking about who best aligns with your views."

"It's important to learn about your candidates because, if they are successful, they will be representing your interests on Council and will have an impact on the future of your neighbourhood."

"Our Meet the Candidates Forum on 5 October is an event you don't want to miss!"
