Completing and lodging this form

Section 156 of the Local Government Act 1999¹ enables councils to apply differential rates that may vary according to the category of use of the land. The permissible land uses are:

- Residential, Commercial-Shop, Commercial-Office, Commercial-Other, Industry-Light, Industry-Other, Primary Production, Vacant Land and Other, as defined under regulation 14 of the Local Government \(General\) Regulations 2013.
- Councils may also apply a differential rate to marina berths under section 156(4a) of the Local Government Act 1999.

Under section 156(9) of the Act, a ratepayer, if of the opinion that a particular land use has been wrongly attributed to the ratepayer's land by the council for the purpose of levying differential rates, may object to the attribution of that land use to the land.

Under section 156(10) of the Act, an objection—

- must be in writing; and
- must set out—
 - the grounds of the objection; and
 - the land use (being a land use being used by the council as a differentiating factor) that should, in the objector's opinion, have been attributed to the land; and
- must be made within 60 days after the objector receives notice of the attribution of the particular land use to which the objection relates (unless the council, in its discretion, allows an extension of time for making the objection).
