

Application of by-laws

Date: December 2023

Application of Councils By-laws

On Thursday, 3 August 2023, Council's seven by-laws were gazetted in the South Australian Government Gazette. They will come into operation four months from this date (Sunday, 3 December 2023).

In accordance with Section 246(2)(e) of the Local Government Act 1999, specific provisions within the by-laws only apply to those portions of land which have been identified by Council resolution.

This primarily relates to locations where there are specific needs or desires for non-standard dog leashing requirements, and to locations where there are specific needs in relation to undertaking activities on local government land.

The provisions that apply to areas are to be determined by the Council cannot be enforced until Council determines the areas in respect of which they apply.

At the Ordinary Council meeting held on Monday, 11 December 2023, Council resolved the following application of Councils by-laws effective from Tuesday, 12 December 2023.
