Pursuant to Section 153 of the Local Government Act

Council recognises that hardship can result from the imposition of substantial increases in Council rates.

Applications for relief by way of rate capping will be received and considered where the increase in rates levied upon a property exceeds the 2025/26 rates levied by more than 15%.

Such capping will only apply to properties that have not been subject to improvements and that have been the ratepayer's principal place of residence since 1 January 2025.
